WORLD CLASS SPIRIT CHATTANOOGA SOUL

In 1865, J. W. Kelly decided to settle in Chattanooga, Tennessee with the desire and goal to create the finest whisky. One year later, he founded J. W. Kelly & Co. His brand set the standard of excellence and was prosperous until 1915, when Prohibition halted production and sales.

Now, more than 100 years later, his dream lives on through us as a "world class spirit with Chattanooga soul."

Old Milford Straight Bourbon Whiskey captures the spirit of J.W. Kelly's original handcrafted bourbon. It is spicy on the nose, and has tasting notes of oak, white pepper, vanilla, and toffee.

Golden Age Straight Rye Whiskey has an exciting mash of rye, malted barley, and malted rye. It has a nose of sweet orchard fruits and rye spices, as well as tasting notes that start out lightly sweet, turn to crusty bread, and finish with a bit of white pepper.

Melrose Rye Whiskey has a distinct double-barreling process. This whiskey is spicy with dry flavors, heightened with notes of cherry and cinnamon from the 15 year old Amarone Italian wine barrel from Italy.

Single Barrel Select Old Milford Straight Bourbon Whiskey is double-oaked barrel strength whiskey bottled at 109 proof. It is sweet and oaky on the nose, and has tasting notes of toasted oak, vanilla, caramel, and nutmeg.
